Biography

Michelle Thiel Bingham
Director – University Partnerships & Education Outreach

Ms. Bingham is a strong advocate for increasing women and minority representation in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics disciplines. With over 30 years of experience in various business, operations and human resources leadership positions, Ms. Bingham leads INL’s University Partnerships organization, which includes the following programs: joint appointments, interns, graduate fellows, postdoctoral researchers, international researchers, academic visitors, employee education, Hiring Our Heroes and university workforce development. In addition, she has line management responsibility for ~450 interns and postdoctoral researchers. Ms. Bingham brings a diverse background and expertise in all facets of human resources and diversity; business management and administration; operations, contracts and communications disciplines. She is co-president of INL’s Multiculturals in Leadership Council and is a board member on the Executive Inclusion Council. Ms. Bingham holds a bachelor’s degree in Political Science with an emphasis in International Relations from University of Utah and a master’s in Business Administration from University of Idaho.

Contact Information

☎ (208) 526-7830
✉ Michelle.Bingham@inl.gov